SPRING 2021

Can you get any Greener than this?

We Leave a unique touch on every project we complete, BUT THIS WAS LIKE NONE BEFORE.

When it came time for this client to add a main level master suite addition on the back of their home, they were sad to see the trees cut down that stood in the way of their new construction project. With some careful handling by our friends at Extreme Tree Service we were able to salvage the majority of the wood from the oak trees and incorporate it into the project.

Blue Ridge recently invested in a sawmill that we can now use to mill wood for custom projects. Tim was able to build this custom cabinetry unit for the walk-in closet which stands in the same location the tree used to. How cool is that? This unit features a three-drawer system, adjustable upper shelving, and a top shelf for each side of the closet. We are excited about the opportunities for customization that this mill will bring to our projects in the future!

Exterior Remodel

This winter we finished this complete exterior remodel in Dublin VA. This client was ready for a total makeover on the exterior of their home. The project was centered around re-siding the whole house in an Aged Pewter color James Hardie siding but the reason they called us at Blue Ridge was not only for the siding replacement, but for assistance with the rest of the project. While the home was getting an improvement to its aesthetic appeal, this client decided to improve their outdoor living functionality as well with the addition of a screened porch and reconstruction of a new front porch. These three portions of the project come together to create a complete exterior remodel that the client will enjoy for years to come, and has increased the value of their home dramatically.
